THE OLD BLARNEY CASTLE

THAT'S DOWN ON THE PIKE

WRITTEN BY

PIERCE KINGSLEY.

DEDICATED TO

THE IRISH INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION

WORLD'S FAIR
1904.

TRADE MARK

Published by
"The Modern Music Co."
SYRACUSE N.Y.

PRICE .40

THE OLD BLARNEY CASTLE,

THAT'S DOWN ON THE PIKE.

PIERCE KINGSLEY.

Andantino.

There's a spot on the pike, sure I know you will like, So drop in a-chush-la - ma-
If you're heav - y and sad, just drop in me lad, It's there you'll find com-fort and

p chree, It's a bit of the sod, We all dea - ly love, Brought joy, You can have curds and whey, A strong cup of tay, Or a o'er to the land of the free. The lads and the las-sies, Be-drop of the cra - ture me boy, Then you take a kip-peen, Light.

Copyright 1904 by Pierce Kingsley.

dad dont you miss, And the Stone from Old Blar-ney, Yer-rah, dont fail to kiss. You'll be up your Du-deen, And your troub-les will van-ish, In the smoke Ye spall-peen, You'll be luck-y in love, You can court who you like, If you'll just kiss the Blarney, That's down on the pike.

hap-py I know, In a spot that you'll like, It's the old I-rish Castle, That's down on the pike.

CHORUS.

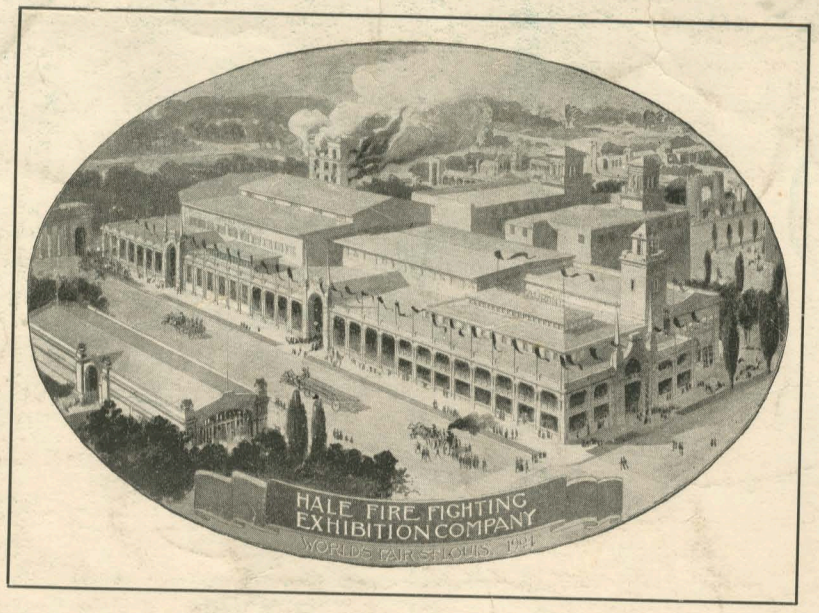

It's the Old Blar-ney Cas-tle That's down on the pike, 'Tis there you'll find Den-ny, and Ted-die, and Mike, They'll greet you with smiles, Bid ye the time O' the day, And the light heart-ed Col-leens, Will drive dull care a-way.

D. S.

Don't Fail to See HALE

The World's Greatest Fire Fighters

THE HALE FIRE FIGHTERS.

Written by Pierce Kingsley.

CHORUS:

Hark! the cry of fire is heard, In the still-ness of the night, — The no - ble fire — lad - dies, ev - er read - y for a fight, —

Dash - ing mad - ly down the street, In - to the flames they strike, —

Risk - ing their lives, on ev - er - y run, With Chief Hale on the Pike. Pike.

Words & Music of above song for sale at the Hale Fire Fighters Concession.